Come and enjoy a fabulously fun and flirty day at Hunter Mountain with New York EasyDates!

On February 14, a bus (or two) will leave NYC for Hunter Mountain with 44 men and women. Those on board will be active NYC singles who enjoy skiing or snowboarding, or who want to learn, and who want to meet others who feel the same. This event is open to men and women 21-45 who are single and living in or near NYC. There will be an intermediate/advanced group (we will aim to pair you up by age range, and whether you're a snowboarder or skier), and a beginner group (where you will start in group lessons).

The trip up

There will be two pick-up points in Manhattan, likely to be around Union Square and Times Square. The pick-up time will be around 6am to 6.15am (yuck) – go to nycski.com/pickups.php for details.

The trip will be about 2.5 hours. You can sleep, read, chat to the other ski-daters, chat to your NYED hosts, whatever... we'll be there before you know it! The Urban Sherpa bus company is a lively bunch of people, and we'll make sure you all get to know each other before we get to Hunter.

Arriving at Hunter

We'll all head to ski rental and get skis and snowboards depending on your preference. Then we'll meet briefly in a conference room to give you your lift tickets and explain the logistics of the day

Your lift-dates

The great thing is we'll have our own priority lift line! There will be 7 scheduled "lift-dates", with generous times in between, so you might get two runs in before the next date. Each date will be seven minutes long, except there won't be a bell to indicate the end of it – you'll just get off the lift! You can ski down together, or not, that's up to you. We will do our best to pair skiers with skiers, snowboarders with snowboarders. We'll break for lunch at around 12.30pm.

The schedule (we'll be on the D-Lift)

Date 1: 10.30am, Date 2: 11.15am, Date 3: 12.00pm

LUNCH – after Date 3

Date 4: 1.30pm, Date 5: 2.15pm, Date 6: 3.00pm, Date 7: 3.45pm (for those with the energy!)

DRINKS AT THE LIFT BASE – the bar is open from 2pm onwards!

Bus leaves for NYC between 4.30pm and 4.45pm

Group lessons

If you are a complete beginner, and want to meet other singles who are also learning to ski or snowboard, then your day will be a little different (though no less fun!). You'll join your friendly Hunter ski instructors for a group lesson, then you can practice what you've learned with your new ski-buddies! Just make sure you register for the Beginners event, rather than the Intermediate event

Getting matches

Same way as at a regular speed-dating event! When you get back to the city, or the next day, log on to www.nyeasydates.com and select the people you would like to see again. The people you want to select could have been one of your lift dates, one of your group from the lesson, or just people you met on the bus or over drinks!

Hunter Mountain speed-dating

Hunter Mountain has asked us to put on a speed-dating event at 2pm in one of their conference room, as they have a bunch of NYC-based members who want to try it out. Your registration fee includes entry to this event (as long as you e-mail us to let us know, and spaces are given out on a first-come, first-serve basis). We imagine that the intermediate skiers will stay on the mountain, but those in the group lesson may be ready for some indoor time!

Return to Manhattan

The bus will leave Hunter between 4.30pm and 4.45pm (early, due to NY State transportation laws on how long bus staff can work in one shift). So, we'll be back in Manhattan around 7 (traffic permitting), and for those with the energy, we'll have a happy hour gathering at a bar near Grand Central (Overlook).

Follow up Manhattan speed-dating event

On Wednesday, March 4, we'll host a speed-dating event for NYC Singles interested in skiing. This is a chance to catch up with people you met on the mountain, and to meet a bunch more ski and snowboard-obsessed singles! Your registration fee for the Feb 14 day allows you to be the first invited to the March event, and your entry will be free.

Or if you can't make the Hunter trip, but still want to meet other skiers and snowboarders, then register for our Manhattan ski-dating event at:

Cancellation policy

Because NYED is committed to certain costs in organizing this event, our cancellation policy cannot be as flexible as it is for regular speed-dating events.

If you cancel at least seven days in advance, we will refund your full fee, less a $7 charge

If you cancel within 7 days, but give us at least 48 hours notice, we will refund half your fee. Seven days before the event we will be committing to Hunter Mountain our registration numbers and arranging bus transportation. For an event like this, it will be very difficult to fill spots for late cancellation without discounting heavily. For this reason, we can only refund half the fee.

If you cancel within 48 hours, or do not show up for the bus, then no refund is available.

At this stage, no transfers are available. All indications are that this event will be a huge success, and that we'll run it again and again. But at this stage, we haven't planned another date, and so there will be no transfers available to an equivalent event.

Safety

As you know, skiing and snowboarding carries the risk of injury. Please ski safely! Liability responsibility is exactly the same as if you had chosen to do a bus/ski day independently of NYED – i.e. the bus company and Hunter have liability terms and conditions that you should read. Please note that all participants will be asked to sign a waiver form on the bus.
